

Industry expertise forestry and paper by Création Durable

Création Durable offers market, material and product flow analyses in the forest and paper sector. The availability of raw materials, semi-finished and finished products for the different levels of the sector is identified, analysed and evaluated for the respective benefit of the client.

We create market and supply models and develop approaches for supply chain management. We also support you in due diligence projects and feasibility studies.